

Respecting the interests of future owners of registered companies we full of information about the companies we are not ready to conclude an open, public view. Taking into account the requirements of customers regarding privacy, the lists are only available in the form of company name, date and number registarsii - this information is public.

Additional infomratsiyu of ready-made company we represent at the request using the form in contacts section. Please note that we do not provide advice on tax planning and foreign trade activities for the residents of those countries in which the use of offshore schemes are prohibited or require special permits, and is not engaged in sales companies and related services directly to clients and beneficiaries of these jurisdictions.

Get a free consultation and get ready to incorporate a company you can always at our offices or at any of the authorized representatives and lawyers in the CIS countries to-date list of our partners you can get by sending us a request using the contact form. In the case of requests or comments on the work of the partner company or an attorney, we would be grateful if you send us your feedback using the feedback form.

If you are a professional mediator or a lawyer going to acquire several companies - you need to register on our site to access the affiliate section of Offshore Express. After a while, your e-mail confirmation will go on making your application and the form-application for an official representation of the Offshore Express in your area.

We will be glad to see you among our partners!